Administrative/biographical history

A flyer for this periodical describes it as "a quarterly magazine, which uniquely in the UK, analyses current trends in South Asian dance; reviews recent performances; and provides up to date news on developments in this fast-growing, vibrant art form."

It is published by Kadam Dance and Music Ltd., and began publication in 2002. Kadam began in 1991, with the intention of working to raise the profile of South Asian dance in Bedfordshire and elsewhere in the country. It has grown from a small group to an important dance development agency, providing education, resources, and staging dance performances. The publication of "Pulse" plays a major role in achieving these aims.

Archival history

This collection is part of the The South Asian Diaspora Literature and Arts Archive (SALIDAA) which was founded in 1999. The aim was to preserve sources and information about the contribution of the South Asian community to literature and arts in Britain.

Immediate source of acquisition

SALIDAA deposited part of their archive with Brunel University Special Collections.
